Frequently Asked Questions

This FAQ page has the answers to a lot of the questions you regularly have to get in touch to ask us - so this is the place to come for information on a whole range of policing issues. Just browse the sections or search for the issue your concerned about.

Can I park on the pavement?

It is an offence to drive onto a pavement and an offence to cause obstruction to other road users, including pedestrians. Vehicles causing obstruction may be issued with a fixed penalty notice and in some cases removed at the owner's expense.

Drivers are asked to have regard to pedestrians, particularly pram and wheelchair users and those who are disabled and partially sighted when parking their vehicles
